ORDER

1. This complaint, dated nil (received by hand at the reception in our office), has been placed along with Scrutiny Report, dated 25.04.2024, for our consideration and to pass appropriate order.
2. The Scrutiny Report mentions that the complainant has not enclosed any letter, addressed to the Lokpal of India. He has also not furnished any information, regarding the facts of the complaint or the public servant (complaint against) in Part-C of the Complaint Form.

3. The defects were ordered to be communicated to the complainant. Accordingly, a communication was sent on 18.03.2024 by the Registry. However, the letter sent by the Registry had been returned by the Postal Department, after affixing the stamp 'Unclaimed RTS' on the envelope. Further, no communication has been received from the complainant, including steps taken to cure the defects, pointed out by the Registry.
4. The complainant is granted two weeks further time to cure the defects, pointed out by the Registry, failing which the complaint be treated as disposed of in terms of this order, without any further reference to us. Registry to issue fresh notice forthwith. Ordered accordingly.
