ORDER

1. Registry has put up the complaint for the consideration of the Full Bench.

2. The complaint is against the Project Manager of Bharat Petroleum Corporation Limited Pipeline Division and its Contractor. The complainant has levelled specific allegations against the public servant with various averments pertaining to unauthorized usage of complainant's land by BPCL through its contractor which consequently led to alleged damage in the complainant's land. The complainant has also made allegations about continued trespass on his land by the authority concerned, leading to disruption in complainant's agricultural activities. In furtherance to that, the complainant has alleged statutory violation of legal and ethical obligations of public servants based on the actions of BPCL officials and their contractor.

3. The Scrutiny has pointed out following defect in the complaint:

“Name of the public servant against whom allegations have been made is not mentioned in the complaint.”

4. We direct the complainant to remove the above defect in the complaint within two weeks, failing which the complaint shall be treated as disposed of without further reference to the Bench.

5. In case the defect is rectified within the stipulated time, the matter may be listed in the following week.
