ORDER

Complaint is received through Lokpal Online Portal.

2. Physical copy has not been received.

3. The complaint is against Manager, Bank of Baroda, Branch XXXXXX.

4. The accusation is that a fraud is committed by the Bank Operator by withdrawing Rs.50,000/- from his old age pension account.

5. Pertinently, in Part 'C' of the complaint, the complainant has named the Manager of Bank of Baroda, whereas, in the letter addressed to the Manager, the allegation is against the Bank Operator.

6. Thus the precise nature of allegations against the Manager is not discernible from the complaint.

7. Be that as it may. There are discrepancies noted in the Column at Srl. No.7 of Part A and Column No.6 of Part C. And that physical copy is also not received.

8. The complainant is granted two weeks further time to cure the defects, pointed out by the Registry, failing which the complaint be treated as disposed of in terms of this order, without any further reference to us. In the event, the complainant cures the defects within the stipulated time, the case be notified before the Full Bench in the following week.

9. Registry to issue fresh notice forthwith. Since the complaint was received through LokpalOnline Portal, therefore, the Registry to inform the complainant also Online/email, from where the Online complaint was forwarded. Ordered accordingly.
