ORDER

Perused the complaint.

The complaint appears to be against a Bank Manager, regarding the fraudulent withdrawal of an amount of Rs.7,000/- from the account of the complainant. During scrutiny of the complaint, some defects were noticed by the Scrutiny Branch which were brought to the notice of Hon'ble Member who directed that "the complaint lacks essential details, including specific details of the public servant, against whom the allegations are made. There is no allegation of corruption. Hence, it would be better to take it up in its present form instead of asking for required additional information. May be placed before the Hon'ble Bench with the available info."

Contd.....2/-

The Full Bench is in agreement with the remarks made by the Hon'ble Member during scrutiny of the complaint. As there are no specific allegations of corruption against any public servant. No further action is warranted in the instant case. No order, therefore needs to be passed in the matter.

Accordingly, the complaint stands disposed of.
