Perused the complaint.

2. This complaint is not directed against any public servant but is against "Sahara", as stated in the complaint, more particularly "Sahara Credit-Cooperative Society Limited".

4. Having perused the complaint, it is clear that the same is not directed against any public servant or government agency but against a Credit Cooperative Society, run by Sahara, a privately-owned entity, now embroiled in litigation upto the Supreme Court.

5. The subject-matter of the complaint does not fall under the purview of the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013, and, therefore, we are not inclined to entertain the complaint. It is open to the complainant to take recourse to any appropriate remedy available to him, if he so desires.

6. Accordingly, the complaint stands disposed of.
