ORDER

Perused the complaint.

2. This complaint is directed against the Chief Manager, Punjab National Bank (PNB), Gaya. In the format of the complaint, the complainant has only alleged "Scam of E-auction" and "E-auction cutting and letter", with no details, whatsoever. One of the annexures is a copy of a letter addressed to the "RBI Lokpal" by the complainant's wife, a perusal of which indicates that the grievance of the complainant is to the effect that, the concerned Bank Manager has wrongly auctioned their property, in connivance with a former cashier of UCO Bank, through e-auction.

3. From a copy of another document annexed to the complaint, it appears that the complainant is in litigation with the PNB, before the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Patna.

4. A perusal of the available material on record indicates that the dispute regarding the property in question is pending before the appropriate forum. In this view of the matter, the Lokpal of India is not inclined to entertain the matter.

5. Accordingly, the complaint stands disposed of.
