ORDER

1. Perused.
2. Registry has noticed certain defects. We deem it appropriate to condone the same.

3. Registry is directed to register the complaint.

4. Allegations of financial misconduct is against the business owner of Bombay Solar and other companies. It is alleged that the said owner has failed to return the funds for over five years, instead has diverted the same for other business purposes. It is further alleged that despite having promised before the ACMM (Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate – CBI - Jodhpur) at the CBI Court to repay the amount, the owner did not fulfill the commitment or provide the assured affidavit to repay the principal amount alongwith 20% interest and violated legal assurances and commitments.

5. Evidently, the person against whom the allegations are made is a private business owner and not a public servant, as can be subjected to our jurisdiction under section 14 of the Act of 2013.

6. In view whereof, the complaint is finally disposed of for want of jurisdiction.

7. Needless to say, the complainant will be at liberty to pursue the remedy under law.
