ORDER

Perused the complaint.

The complainant has made this complaint against a public servant whose designation he does not know. The allegations against the public servant are "corruption of purchasing material for irrigation purposes". No evidence in support of allegations of corruption has been provided by the complainant. In the absence of any concrete evidence of corrupt activities by the public servant or any specific instance of corruption, we are not inclined to pass any order in the matter.

The complaint, accordingly, stands disposed of.
