ORDER

1. Perused the complaint.

2. The complainant has stated that he has been transferred on a permanent posting from the military station, Dimapur Nagaland to Avantipura, J&K, as a consequence of which he is entitled for pay and allowances like HRA, Composite Transfer Grant (CTG), and Children's Education Allowance (CEA) etc., but he has not been paid.

3. The complainant's allegation is that he experienced regular selective harassment and vindictive approach, which caused him financial losses and significant stress due to the conduct of the accused public servants. His entitlement of various allowances with interest either has been delayed or denied. Hence he made this complaint.

4. We have gone through the complaint, but we could not decipher any element of allegation of corruption alleged against Public Servant to invoke the jurisdiction under the Act of 2013. Any denial or delay in payment of allowances by itself does not amount to corruption, unless the denial is because of corruption. Hence, in the light of the above set of facts and circumstances, we do not find any good reason to interfere.

5. With the above observations, we deem it appropriate to close the complaint. Accordingly, the complaint is disposed of.
