ORDER

1. Registry has placed the complaint in diary stage and listed several defects.

2. The complainant is aggrieved by the notice issued from District Legal Service Authority, Mumbai, dated 13.07.2024 requesting the complainant for appearance before the Lok Adalat meant for pre-litigative claim/cases, to be held on 27.07.2024, which date has already expired.
3. The complaint is essentially about some fraud played upon the complainant. There is nothing in the complaint to even remotely suggest the involvement of a public servant in commission of an offence, constituting corruption within the meaning of corruption under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988 (PC Act) as such. Resultantly, the grievance is not amenable to the jurisdiction of the Lokpal under Chapter VI of the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013.
4. Although, ordinarily, we would have given some time to the complainant to cure the defects pointed out in the Scrutiny Report by the Registry, in light of the observations made hitherto the complaint need not be kept pending.

5. Accordingly, the complaint is disposed of.
