ORDER

1. The Registry has observed following defect:-

- (1) The statement of allegations enclosed with the complaint has not been signed.

2. The allegations are that the named Public Servant was appointed as CTO, State Taxation Department, State of Uttar Pradesh while concealing the fact that an FIR is pending against her. This commission and omission on the part of the named Public Servant, it is alleged that, tantamount to falsifying information to secure a government position involving breach of trust and misuse of power, which are central elements under the corruption related offence. The complainant accordingly seeks action against named Public Servant.
3. Having perused the complaint we perceive that named Public Servant is employed with the State of Uttar Pradesh and not in connection with the affairs of the Union.
4. In view whereof, the complaint is not tenable as it is not amenable to the jurisdiction under the Act of 2013.
5. While ignoring the defect pointed out by the Registry, the complaint is finally disposed of in above terms.

6. Needless to say the complainant is at liberty to seek legal remedy before appropriate legal forum under law.
