ORDER

1. Vide order dated 12.03.2025 taking into consideration the general nature of complaint, the complainant was called upon to give specific facts and events, which could be made the subject matter of a Preliminary Inquiry including the names of the officials involved in commission of offence of corruption punishable under the provisions of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988.

2. When the matter is taken up today, the Registry has placed on record the communication dated 29.03.2025 received from complainant. The information delineated therein are general and vague.
3. That by order dated 12.03.2025, the complainant was called upon to give "specifications regarding the date, time and place of corrupt practice including the details of the officials involved in corruption albeit following in the last seven years before the date of complaint." However, no such details as sought for has been delineated by the complainant.
4. In view whereof, since the complainant has not come forward with specific facts and events despite an opportunity granted, we dispose of the complaint as the allegations are vague and bereft of material fact and being devoid of merit.
