ORDER

Perused the complaint.

2. The complaint is not in the format prescribed under the relevant rules. However, in the interest of justice, it was decided to take up the complaint and take a decision thereupon on merits of the case.

3. The complainant has raised some issues relating to ownership and earmarking of the land situated in East Delhi. The grievance of the complainant is that this issue has remained unresolved for a very long time owing to the complexities involved. From the documents, it appears that the complainant has approached several authorities including Central Information Commission for seeking information and redressal.

4. The Bench has carefully considered the complaint and is of the view that no allegation of corruption has been made in this complaint and hence this complaint is not covered by the mandate provided to the Lokpal under the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013. Therefore, no order is required to be passed in this matter. The complainant is at liberty to continue to pursue his grievance with appropriate authorities.

5. Accordingly, the complaint is disposed of.
