ORDER

Perused the complaint.

2. As the complaint sent via an email dated March 03rd, 2022 is not in the format prescribed under the relevant rules, the complainant was informed by way an email dated March, 12th, 2022 to file his complaint as per the format prescribed. However, the complainant has not done this so far. Despite this, in the interest of justice, it was decided to take up the complaint and decide it on merits.
3. The complainant claims to be suffering from mental depression disorder and is taking treatment in a hospital in Mumbai. The complainant is aggrieved on account of a mutation entry in respect of the land that he claims to have inherited from his ancestors. He has alleged that a private individual, by fabricating documents, has usurped the land that rightly belonged to him. He has also alleged that he was beaten up by some anti-social elements. As a result of this incident, agony and shock, his wife who was in the family way, has delivered a still born baby. The complainant has requested action against this private individual and investigation into how he has accumulated wealth. He has further requested action against the Tehsildar.

4. It is seen that the complainant has filed a similar complaint earlier also, which is diarized as Complaint No.3276/2022. This complaint was considered by the Full Bench in its meeting held on 03.06.2022 and an order was passed disposing of the case as his complaint was not covered by the mandate provided to the Lokpal under the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013. Further, the complainant was given the liberty to approach the Hon'ble Lokayukta, Maharashtra for the redressal of his grievances.

5. In view of the above, there is no need to pass any fresh order in this case. The order passed in Complaint No.3276/2022 will also apply to this complaint, i.e. C.No.4176/2022.

6. With these remarks, the complaint is disposed of.
