ORDER

Perused the complaint.

2. The complainant had filed this complaint on 20th February, 2021. Upon scrutiny of the same, it was noticed that there were some deficiencies. The Secretariat of the Lokpal of India, on 25th June, 2021, wrote to the complainant to remove the deficiencies. However, till date the complainant has not removed these deficiencies. Despite this, in the interest of justice, it was decided to consider this complaint and take a decision thereupon on the merits of the case.

3. The complainant has complained against the Commissioner of Police; Hon'ble Home Minister of India; an official of Malviya Nagar Police Station and two others named in the complaint. The complainant has not mentioned the exact details of the allegation against the individuals. From the papers it is seen that he is aggrieved on account of some items of his luggage missing when he was moving his luggage to Delhi.

4. The Full Bench has perused the complaint and the documents attached to the complaint. The Full Bench is of the view that the complaint is very vague, ambiguous and lacks clarity. The complainant has also not enclosed any evidence. Therefore, no order needs to be passed in this case. The complainant is at liberty to approach the appropriate authorities for the redressal of his grievances.

5. Accordingly, the complaint is disposed of.
