ORDER

Office objection as to deficiency stands condoned.

2. Longing for an information qua the alleged illegal ancestral mutations transferring land from Neemallikalu survey No.291-2 to 291-2A, 291-2B on 19.02.2018, from the Tahsildar, Amaravathi, Andhra Pradesh. And having failed to have any response from the officials of Revenue Department despite order dated 29.08.2023 in case No.2702/SIC-KJR/2023 by the State Information Commissioner, Mangalagiri, the complainant on the allegation that former and present Revenue officers of the State Government have indulged in corrupt practices of causing illegal ancestral mutations of revenue land. Accordingly, the complainant seeks immediate indulgence of the Lokpal of India.

3. Perused the complaint and the documents annexed therewith.

4. Evidently, this complaint is against alleged illegal activities of the officers of the Revenue Department of the State of Andhra Pradesh and not against any of the officers serving in connection with the affairs of the Union.

5. In view whereof and taking into consideration the mandate of Section 14 of the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013, we decline to cause any indulgence.

6. Needless to say the complainant would be at liberty to seek redressal of his grievance before appropriate Forum as per law.

7. The complaint is finally disposed of in the above terms.
