ORDER

Perused the complaint.

2. This complaint is directed against the Chief Vigilance Officer, Life Insurance Corporation (LIC), New Delhi, who has not been named by the complainant. The grievance of the complainant is that he has not received the benefits of superannuation within six months of leaving the LIC and, further, he and many other employees have not received their service certificates, gratuity etc. The complainant has addressed complaints to various other authorities in this regard.

3. The grievance of the complainant is regarding service-related benefits. The complainant has not named any public servant and there are no allegations or details of corrupt practices.

4. As the subject-matter of the complaint does not fall under the purview of the Lokpal and Lokayuktas Act, 2013, we are not inclined to take any further action. It is, however, open to the complainant to take recourse to any appropriate remedy available to him in law.

5. In view of the above, the complaint stands disposed of.
